Schedule

THE SIX HUNDRED AND TWELFTH

ACT OF THE PARLIAMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA

BANK OF GHANA ACT, 2002

AN ACT to amend and consolidate the law relating to the Bank of Ghana and to provide for related matters.

DATE OF ASSENT: 24th January, 2002.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

PART I—THE BANK OF GHANA, ITS OBJECTS AND SHARES

Section 1—Continued Legal Existence of Bank of Ghana

(1) The Bank of Ghana in existence immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, subject to this Act, continue to be in existence as a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(2) The Bank referred to in subsection (1) shall be the Central Bank of Ghana and may, in relation to its business purchase, hold, manage and dispose of movable and immovable property and may enter into a contract or a transaction as may be expedient.

(3) The application of the common seal of the Bank shall be authenticated

(a) by the Governor, or

(b) in the absence of the Governor, by a Deputy Governor, and two directors all of whom shall certify the validity of the authentication and that signing shall be independent of the signing by any other person who may sign the instrument as a witness.

Section 2—Head Office and Branches

The Bank shall have its head office in Accra and may, where it is considered necessary for the performance of its functions, open branches and have agencies or agents in and outside Ghana.

Section 3—Objects of the Central Bank

(1) The primary objective of the Bank is to maintain stability in the general level of prices.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) the Bank shall support the general economic policy of the Government and promote economic growth and effective and efficient operation of banking and credit systems in the country, independent of instructions from the Government or any other authority.

Section 4—Functions of the Central Bank

(1) The Bank shall for the purposes of section 3 perform the following functions:

- (a) formulate and implement monetary policy aimed at achieving the objects of the Bank;
- (b) promote by monetary measures the stabilization of the value of the currency within and outside Ghana;
- (c) institute measures which are likely to have a favourable effect on the balance of payments, the state of public finances and the general development of the national economy;
- (d) regulate, supervise and direct the banking and credit system and ensure the smooth operation of the financial sector;
- (e) promote, regulate and supervise payment and settlement systems;
- (f) issue and redeem the currency notes and coins;
- (g) ensure effective maintenance and management of Ghana's external financial services;
- (h) license, regulate, promote and supervise non-banking financial institutions;
- (i) act as banker and financial adviser to the Government;
- (j) promote and maintain relations with international banking and financial institutions and subject to the Constitution or any other relevant enactment, implement international monetary agreements to which Ghana is a party; and
- (k) do all other things that are incidental or conducive to the efficient performance of its functions under this Act and any other enactment.

(2) The Board may by legislative instrument authorise any person to exercise the power of the Bank to regulate and supervise non-banking financial institutions.

(3) An instrument issued under subsection (2) may include provisions relating to

- (a) inspection;
- (b) management audit; and

(c) any other aspect of operation of non-banking institutions.

(4) An instrument issued under subsection (2) shall be under the signature of the Governor.

Section 5—Authorised Shares of the Bank

(1) The authorised number of shares of the Bank shall be seven hundred billion shares of no par value which shall be taken up from time to time by the Government and may be increased from time to time.

(2) The shares shall not be transferable or subject to any encumbrance.

Section 6—General Reserve Fund, Payment into Consolidated Fund

(1) There shall be a General Reserve Fund of the Bank.

(2) At the end of each financial year of the Bank, after allowing for the operational expenses out of its income and after provision has been made for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation of assets, replacement of currency, development fund, contributions to staff and superannuation fund and other contingencies, there shall be transferred to the General Reserve Fund,

(a) one-half of the net profit of the Bank if the amount of money in that Fund is less than the paid-up capital of the Bank; or

(b) one-quarter of the net profit of the Bank, if the amount of money in that Fund is less than twice the amount of the paid-up capital of the Bank.

(3) Money that remains after the transfer under subsection (2) shall

(a) where there is a balance of government indebtedness in the books of the Bank, be used to set off the indebtedness; and

(b) where there is no balance of government indebtedness in the books of the Bank, be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

(4) Where at the end of a financial year the amount of money in the General Reserve Fund is more than twice the amount of the paid-up capital, a proportion of the profit, as may be agreed upon between the Bank and the Minister, shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Section 7—Revaluation Account

(1) Profits or losses arising from a revaluation of the Bank's assets or liabilities in gold, special drawing rights or foreign securities as a result of a change in the par value of the cedi or of any change in the par value of the currency unit of any other country shall be excluded from the computation of the annual profits or losses of the Bank.

(2) The profits and losses arising under subsection (1) shall be carried to a special account to be known as the 'Revaluation Account'.

(3) Profits shall not be paid into the General Reserve Fund or the Consolidated Fund under subsection (2) or (3) of section 6 where the Revaluation Account shows a net loss, and the profits not paid into the General Reserve Fund shall be credited to the Revaluation Account in an amount sufficient to cover the loss.

(4) Where the profits referred to under subsection (1) are insufficient to cover the losses of the Bank in a financial year, the Government shall cause to be issued to the Bank redeemable negotiable interest bearing securities to the extent of the deficiency.

(5) A credit balance in the Revaluation Account at the end of a financial year of the Bank shall be applied to redeem the outstanding securities issued under subsection (4).

PART II—ADMINISTRATION OF THE BANK

Section 8—The Board of Directors

The governing body of the Bank shall be a Board of Directors consisting of,

- (a) the Governor of the Bank who shall be the chairperson;
- (b) the First and Second Deputy Governors appointed under section 17;
- (c) one representative of the Ministry of Finance; and
- (d) eight other directors appointed by the President in consultation with the Council of State.

Section 9—Functions of the Board on Policy Formulation

The Board shall formulate policies necessary for the achievement of the objects of the Bank.

Section 10—Terms and Conditions of Service of Members

(1) The members of the Board, other than the Governor and the two Deputy Governors, shall hold office for a period of three years but are eligible for re-appointment.

(2) The members, other than the Governor and the two Deputy Governors shall be paid appropriate allowances to be determined by the Board in consultation with the Minister.

Section 11—Qualifications of Members

- (e) is guilty of gross misconduct in relation to the duties of that member; or
- (f) in the case of a person possessed of professional qualification, that member is disqualified or suspended from practising his or her profession by the order of a competent authority, made in respect of that member or ceases to be a member of the profession otherwise than at the request of that member.

Section 13—Vacancy on the Board

Where a member dies, resigns or otherwise vacates office before the completion of the term of office, another person shall be appointed

- (a) in the case of the Governor or a Deputy Governor, for a period of four years;
- (b) in the case of any other member for the unexpired period of that member.

Section 14—Meetings of the Board

(1) The Governor shall summon meetings of the Board as often as may be required but not less frequently than once in each month.

(2) The Governor shall preside at the meetings of the Board and

(a) in the absence of the Governor, the First Deputy Governor shall preside, or

(b) in the absence of the Governor and the First Deputy Governor, the Second Deputy Governor shall preside.

(3) The quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be six members including the Governor or a Deputy Governor.

(4) A member who has an interest, whether direct or indirect, in a matter that is being considered or dealt with by the Board shall disclose in writing to the Board the nature of that interest and shall not participate in a discussion or decision of the Board on that matter.

(5) Where a member fails or refuses to disclose his or her interest under sub-section (4), the member shall cease to be a member.

(6) Decisions of the Board shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present and voting except that where there is an equality of votes on an issue before the Board, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(7) The Board may, where it considers it fit, invite a person to assist at its meeting but a person so invited is not entitled to vote at that meeting on a matter for decision by the Board.

(8) The validity of the proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by a vacancy among its membership or by a defect in the appointment or qualification of any of the members.

(9) An act done by a member acting in good faith as a member is valid, notwithstanding a defect in the appointment or qualification of that member.

(10) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Board shall determine the procedure for its meetings.

Section 15—Committees of the Board

The Board may appoint a number of committees that are necessary for the purpose of advising the Board.

Section 16—Audit Committee

(1) There shall be appointed by the Board an Audit Committee whose chairperson shall be appointed by the members from among their number.

(2) The Audit Committee shall consist of three members and its responsibilities shall be to:

- (a) establish appropriate accounting procedures and accounting controls for the Bank and supervise compliance with these procedures;
- (b) monitor compliance with enactments applicable to the Bank and report to the Board thereon;
- (c) deliver opinions on any matters submitted to it by the Board or management;
- (d) receive and examine the external auditor's report and recommend to the Board any appropriate action to be taken; and
- (e) review the work of the Chief Internal Auditor.

(3) The Audit Committee shall meet ordinarily once every quarter and extraordinarily when convened by the Board or management.

Section 17—Appointment of Governor and Deputy Governors

(1) The Governor and the two Deputy Governors shall be

- (a) persons of recognised financial or banking experience; and
- (b) appointed by the President acting in consultation with the Council of State.

(2) The Governor and the Deputy Governors shall each be appointed for a term of four years each and each one is eligible for re-appointment.

(3) Unless otherwise permitted by the Board in writing, the Governor and the Deputy Governors shall not, while holding office under this Act, occupy any other office or employment whether there is remuneration attached to it or not.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Governor or a Deputy Governor may, with the approval of the Board,

- (a) act as a member of a commission appointed by the Government to enquire into a matter affecting currency or banking;
- (b) act as a member of the board of an international bank or an international monetary authority or any other institution to which the Government gives support.

(5) Subject to the Constitution and this section, the Governor and the two Deputy Governors shall be appointed on terms and conditions determined by the Government.

(6) The two Deputy Governors shall be designated as First Deputy and Second Deputy Governor respectively.

Section 18—Functions of the Governor

(1) The Governor shall, subject to the directions given by the Board on matters of policy and subject as expressly provided in this Act, be entrusted with the day-to-day business and administration of the Bank, and may make decisions and exercise all powers and perform the functions which may be exercised and performed by the Bank.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1), the Governor shall

(a) execute the policies of the Board;

(b) make regular reports to the Board on the management and operations of the Bank;

(c) provide the data, statistics and advice necessary for the attainment of the objects of the Bank; and

(2) The Bank shall accept custody of all securities, documents and other valuable objects belonging to the Government.

(3) The Bank may act as banker to any government institution or agency.

(4) In a place where the Bank does not have a branch, the Bank may appoint a banking institution to act as its agent for the collection and payment of Government moneys.

(5) An agent which collects money for and on behalf of the Bank under subsection (4) shall, as may be specified, remit the money to the Bank.

(6) Interest shall not be paid by the Bank on amounts deposited in a government account.

(7) Except as otherwise determined by agreement with the Minister, the Bank shall not receive from the Government remuneration for its services under this section.

(8) Subject to this section, the Bank may undertake and transact a business which the Government may entrust to the Bank.

Section 30—Temporary Advances

(1) The Bank may

(a) make advances and loans to the Government on overdraft or in any other form that the Board may determine;

(b) make direct purchase from the Government of treasury bills or securities representing obligations of the Government.

(2) The total of the loans, advances, purchase of treasury bills and securities together with money borrowed by the Government from other banking institutions and the public at the close of a financial year under subsection (1) shall not exceed 10 percent of the total revenue of the fiscal year in which the advances were made.

(3) An advance made under subsection (1) shall be repaid within three months after the grant of the advance, and where that advance remains unpaid after the due date, the power of the Bank to make further advances in a subsequent financial year shall not be exercised unless the amounts due in respect of outstanding advances have been repaid.

(4) Where repayment of the advances and overdrafts is unduly delayed, the Bank may transfer the debt to the public through the sale of treasury bills.

(5) The Bank shall charge interest on advances granted under this section at the rate that the Board in consultation with the Minister shall determine.

(6) In the event of any emergency, the Governor, the Minister and the Controller and Accountant-General shall meet to decide the limit of borrowing that should be made by Government and the Minister shall submit a report on the issue to Parliament within seven sitting days.

Section 31—Management of the Public Debt

The Bank shall be entrusted with the issue and management of government loans publicly issued upon the terms and conditions that are agreed between the Government and the Bank.

Section 32—Adviser to Government on Fiscal Matters

The Bank shall advise Government on

- (a) the monetary transactions of the Government and government agencies; and
- (b) the international and local contracts to which the Government is a party and which relate to the object and functions of the Bank.

PART IV—CREDIT CONTROL

Section 33—Report on Unusual Movement in Supply of Money

(1) Where the Board considers that there are unusual movements in the money supply and prices, detrimental to a balanced growth of the national economy, it shall subject to this Act, make as soon as practicable a report of this to the Minister specifying the causes which in its opinion led to the situation.

(2) The Bank, in counteracting unusual movements in the money supply and prices in the country shall, after consultation with the Minister, use any of the instruments of control conferred upon it under this Act or under any other enactment to maintain and promote a balanced growth of the national economy.

Section 34—Managing the Monetary and Banking System

Without prejudice to subsection (2) of section 33, the Bank may, for the purposes of monetary management,

- (a) alter the minimum ratio of reserve to deposits or the minimum capital adequacy ratio which each banking institution shall maintain;
- (b) alter the discount and interest rates of the Bank to be applied in credit operations with banking institutions;

- (d) issue, sell, re-purchase or redeem Bank of Ghana securities;
- (e) expand or contract credit facilities to the banks;
- (f) authorise a banking institution that it considers fit to accept deposits for the Government or order the transfer of government deposits with any bank;
- (g) impose special requirements on deposit with banking institutions that it may determine; and
- (h) impose such other measures as the Board may determine.

PART V—DOMESTIC OPERATIONS

Section 35—Issue and Redemption of Notes and Coins

The Bank shall have the sole right to issue and redeem currency notes and coins in the country.

Section 36—Cover for Notes and Coins

The Bank shall hold assets to cover the currency notes and coins issued by the Bank.

Section 37—Unit and Denomination and Form of Currency

- (1) The unit of currency shall be the Cedi which shall be divided into one hundred pesewas, one pesewa being one hundredth part of a cedi.
- (2) The Bank shall issue currency notes and coins of the denominations that are approved by the Board.
- (3) Currency notes and coins issued by the Bank shall be of the forms and designs that are approved by the Board.
- (4) The standard weight and composition of coins issued by the Bank and the amount of remedy and variation shall be determined by the Board.

(5) The currency issued by the Bank shall be printed or minted by the Bank or under the authority of the Bank.

Section 38—Appointment of Other Banks as Currency Agents

The Bank may appoint a banking institution to act as agent for the issue, re-issue, exchange and withdrawal of currency notes and coins on the terms and conditions that are agreed between the Bank and that banking institution.

Section 39—Currency Cover Assets of the Bank

(1) The currency cover assets of the Bank may include

- (a) gold, gold coin and bullion;
- (b) convertible currency notes and coins and bank balances in convertible currency with a bank outside Ghana;
- (c) treasury bills of the Government of a country whose currency is convertible;
- (d) bills of exchange bearing at least two good signatures drawn on a place outside Ghana, payable in convertible currency and having a maturity not exceeding three months exclusive of days of grace;
- (e) securities of Government other than the Government of Ghana expressed in convertible currency;
- (f) special drawing rights;
- (g) securities or bonds in convertible currency issued by any international financial institution or bank; and
- (h) subject to subsection (2),
 - (i) treasury bills of the Government denominated in cedis and maturing within ninety-one days;
 - (ii) other securities of the Government denominated in cedis and maturing in not more than twenty years which have been publicly issued or form part of an issue which is being made to the public at the time of acquisition.

(2) The aggregate holding of treasury bills and of securities under paragraph (h) of subsection (1) shall not at any time exceed sixty per cent of the currency in circulation.

Section 40—Liabilities for Issue

(1) The currency cover assets of the Bank shall be available to meet only the liabilities of the Bank as represented by the total of the amount of currency notes and coins issued by the Bank and are in circulation.

(2) Where at any time the assets of the Bank including funds in the General Reserve Fund and the Revaluation Account are insufficient to meet demands for the redemption of notes and coins, that deficiency shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

Section 41—Legal Tender

(1) Currency notes issued by the Bank shall be legal tender at their face value.

(2) Coins issued by the Bank shall, if those coins have not been tampered with, be legal tender for payments up to an amount not exceeding

(a) five thousand cedis in the case of coins of denominations of one hundred, two hundred and five hundred cedis;

(b) one thousand cedis in the case of denominations of not less than twenty cedis; and

(c) one hundred cedis in the case of coins of denominations of less than twenty cedis.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a coin shall be deemed to have been tampered with if the coin has been

(a) impaired, diminished or lightened otherwise than by fair wear and tear; or

(b) defaced by stamping, engraving or piercing whether the coin has been thereby diminished, lightened, or not.

(4) The Bank may, on giving not less than three months notice in the Gazette, call in any of its currency notes and coins on payment of the face value; and the notes or coins with respect to which a notice has been given under this subsection shall, on the expiration of the notice, cease to be legal tender.

Section 42—Refund of Lost or Imperfect Currency Notes or Coins

(1) A person is not entitled to recover from the Bank the value of any mutilated or imperfect currency note or a coin tampered with.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Governor may permit the exchange of the amount of any mutilated or imperfect currency notes or coins as determined by the Governor.

Section 43—Evidence of Imitation of a Currency Note

Where in proceedings in a court it has to be determined whether a document purporting to be a currency note is an imitation of a currency note, a certificate in the form set out in the Schedule to this Act under the hand of the Governor or the First or Second Deputy Governor shall be received in evidence without further proof as conclusive evidence of the fact that the document is an imitation of a currency note.

Section 44—Exemption from Stamp Duty on Currency Notes

The Bank is not liable for the payment of a stamp duty under any enactment in respect of currency notes issued by it.

Section 45—Exchange of Currency

(1) A person who delivers to the Bank an amount of currency is entitled to receive from the Bank in exchange, without charge, currency notes or coins of the same amount and of the denomination as that person may require.

(2) Where the Bank is unable to give currency notes or coins of the denomination required under subsection (1), it shall give that person currency notes or coins of the nearest denomination.

Section 46—Business Transaction

The Bank may, subject to this Act and the policies of the Bank, undertake or transact any or all of the following:

- (a) accept deposits from and make payments to Government and other public bodies, agencies or international organisations, embassies and bodies or persons specified in notices issued by the Board;
