Schedule Form and Content of Annual Report

ACT 769

NATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY ACT, 2008(1)

AN ACT to establish the National Communications Authority as the central body to license and regulate communications activities and services in the country; and to provide for related purposes.

National Communications Authority

1. Establishment of the National Communications Authority

(1) There is established by this Act, a body known as the National Communications Authority.

(2) The Authority is a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(3) The Authority may for the performance of its functions acquire and hold movable and immovable property and may enter into a contract or any other transaction.

(4) Where there is hindrance to the acquisition of property, the property may be acquired for the Authority under the State Property and Contracts Act, 1960 (C.A.6) or the State Lands Act, 1962 (Act

125) and the costs shall be borne by the Authority.

2. Object of the Authority

The object of the Authority is to regulate the provision of communications services in the country.

3. Functions of the Authority

For the purpose of achieving its object, the Authority shall

(a) establish and monitor the implementation of national communications standards and ensure compliance accordingly;

(b) formulate a strategic plan;

(c) grant communication licence;

(d) regulate and monitor licensees, holders of frequency authorisations in consultation with the National Media Commission where appropriate;

(e) ensure fair competition amongst licencees, operators of communications networks and service providers of public communications;

(f) classify communications services to include;

(i) closed user group services;

(ii) private communications services;

(iii) value added services; and (iv)

any other service designated by the Minister and published in the Gazette;

(g) determine applications for communication licences including frequency authorisations,

(h) maintain the Register established under section 26;

- (i) collect and arrange to be collected moneys lawfully due to the Authority;
- (j) establish a frequency plan and monitor any frequency allocated to the communications industry;
- (k) investigate and resolve disputes
 - (i) related to harmful interference with frequency brought to the attention of the Authority or of which the Authority has knowledge,
 - (ii) amongst users and operators in respect of rates, billings and services provided and facilitate relief where necessary amongst the users and operators;
 - (iii) in the event of the failure to obtain redress from providers of public communications services, and
 - (iv) in respect of interconnection sharing facilities and utility installations;
- (l) carry out on its own initiative or at the request of a person, investigations in relation to a person whose conduct is in contravention of this Act;
- (m) establish quality of service indicators and reporting requirements for operators and service providers;
- (n) certify and ensure the testing of communications equipment for compliance with
 - (i) international standards; and
 - (ii) environmental health and safety standards including electromagnetic radiation and emissions;

(o) ensure the systematic implementation of policy directives of the Minister and of communications policies in the country;

(p) obtain requisite information from any person for purposes of the performance of its functions;

(q) when designated by the Minister, represent the Republic at international fora;

(r) issue guidelines and standards from time to time;

(s) support the implementation of the Universal Access Policy;

(t) encourage high standards of propriety within the Authority and promote the efficiency and effectiveness of the staff of the Authority;

(u) establish a policy and resource framework for the operation of the Authority in line with the overall strategic plan of the Authority;

(v) ensure that the principles of good corporate governance are complied with at all times;

(w) establish and manage a national numbering plan for network and application services;

(x) advise the Minister on

(i) matters related to the communications industry within the country and globally, and

(ii) policies including incentives that may encourage investment and innovation in the communications industry in the country; and

(y) perform any other function assigned to it under this Act or any other enactment or that is ancillary to the object of the Authority.

4. Powers of the Authority

The Authority may exercise the following powers:

- (a) enter into a contract for the supply of goods and services;
- (b) invest the funds of the Authority that are not immediately required for the performance of its functions and ensure the judicious use of the funds;
- (c) publish information that is relevant to its functions and activities in a manner that it considers appropriate;
- (d) promote and where necessary fund the training of persons for the communications industry;
- (e) undertake research and development work related to its functions; and
- (f) promote research and the development by other persons of the communications industry.

5. Regulatory and best practice of the Authority

The Authority shall in the performance of its functions have regard to

- (a) the principles of transparency, accountability, proportionality and consistency;
- (b) best regulatory practice;
- (c) the protection of the interests of consumers or users of communications networks or communications services and in particular to the interests of consumers' choice, quality of service and value for money;
- (d) the impact on the environment of the activities undertaken by telecommunications service providers and telecommunications network providers;
- (e) the promotion of competition in the provision of communications services;
- (f) the various demands, interests and uses of the electromagnetic spectrum;
- (g) the needs and interests of persons with disability, the elderly, low income earners and the vulnerable;

(h) the opinions of consumers and members of the general public; and

(i) the interests of both rural and urban dwellers.

6. Governing body of the Authority

(1) The governing body of the Authority is a Board consisting of

(a) the chairperson;

(b) the Director-General appointed under section 16;

(c) one representative of the

(i) National Security Council,

(ii) National Media Commission,

(iii) Ministry of Communications, not below the rank of a director;

(d) one person with experience and expertise in communications; and

(e) three other persons at least one of whom is a woman and each of whom has knowledge or expertise in electrical engineering, law, business or public administration.

(2) A person is not qualified for appointment if that person

(a) is directly or indirectly involved in the management of; or

(b) has a financial or commercial interest in a communications network operator, a communications service provider, a communications equipment manufacturer or supplier either of whom operates within the country or outside the country or any other entity with an interest in the communications industry of this country.

(3) The members of the Board shall be appointed by the President in accordance with article 70 of the Constitution.

(4) The Board shall ensure the proper and effective performance of the functions of the Authority.

7. Liability of members

(1) The duties of directors contained in Part Q of Chapter II of the Companies Act, 1963 (Act 179) shall apply to members of the Board.

(2) A member of the Board is not personally liable for damage or injury to a third party that arises in the execution of an official duty of that member, if the member at all material times acted in good faith.

8. Tenure of office of members of the Board

(1) A member of the Board shall hold office for a period not exceeding four years and is eligible for re-appointment but a member shall not be appointed for more than two terms.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the Director-General.

(3) A member of the Board may at any time resign from office in writing addressed to the President through the Minister.

(4) A member of the Board, other than the Director-General who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board without sufficient cause ceases to be a member of the Board.

(5) The President may by letter addressed to a member revoke the appointment of that member.

(6) Where a member of the Board is for a sufficient reason, unable to act as a member, the Minister shall determine whether the inability would result in the declaration of a vacancy.

(7) Where there is a vacancy

(a) under subsection, (3); (4); (5); 10 (2) or 11 (3); or

(b) as a result of a declaration under subsection (6);

the Minister shall notify the President of the vacancy and the President shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

9. Meetings of the Board

(1) The Board shall meet at least once every three months for the despatch of business at the times and in the places determined by the chairperson.

(2) The chairperson shall at the request in writing of not less than one-third of the membership of the Board convene an extraordinary meeting of the Board at the place and time determined by the chairperson.

(3) The quorum at a meeting of the Board is four members of the Board or a greater number determined by the Board in respect of an important matter.

(4) The chairperson shall preside at meetings of the Board and in the absence of the chairperson, a member of the Board elected by the members present from among their number other than the Director-General shall preside.

(5) Matters before the Board shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(6) The Board may co-opt a person to attend a Board meeting but that person shall not vote on a matter for decision at the meeting.

(7) The proceedings of the Board shall not be invalidated by reason of a vacancy among the members or a defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.

(8) Subject to this section, the Board may determine the procedure for its meetings.

10. Disclosure of interest

(1) A member of the Board who has an interest in a matter for consideration by the Board shall disclose in writing the nature of that interest and is disqualified from participating in the deliberations of the Board in respect of that matter.

(2) A member who contravenes subsection (1) ceases to be a member.

11. Declaration of registrable interests

(1) Each member of the Board shall, prior to taking office, submit to the Minister a written declaration of that member's registrable interest whether directly or indirectly owned by the member.

(2) A member of the Board shall inform the Authority of any change in respect of that member's registrable interest from the date of the change.

(3) A member who

(a) without reasonable excuse fails to declare a registrable interest, or

(b) knowingly makes a false declaration, contravenes subsections (1) and (2), and ceases to be a member of the Board and the appointment of the member to the Board shall be revoked by the President.

12. Establishment of committees

(1) The Board may establish committees consisting of members of the Board or non-members or both to perform a function.

(2) A committee of the Board may be chaired by a member of the Board.

13. Allowances

Members of the Board and members of a committee of the Board shall be paid the allowances approved by the Minister in consultation with the Minister responsible for Finance.

Administrative Provisions

14. Ministerial responsibility and directives

(1) The Minister may give written directives to the Board on matters of policy and the Board shall comply.

(2) The Authority shall on the request of the Minister, provide the Minister with advice, recommendations and information that the Minister requires in respect of the duties, powers and functions of the Authority.

15. Divisions of the Authority

The Board shall establish divisions of the Authority for the effective and efficient discharge of the functions of the Authority.

16. Director-General

(1) The President shall, in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution, appoint a Director-General of the Authority who shall be the Chief Executive Officer.

(2) The Director-General shall hold office for a period of not more than five years and is eligible for re-appointment.

(3) The Director-General shall hold office on the terms and conditions specified in the letter of appointment.

(4) The Director-General is responsible for the day-to-day administration of the affairs of the Authority and is answerable to the Board in the performance of functions under this Act.

(5) The Director-General may delegate a function to the Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Authority but shall not be relieved from the ultimate responsibility for the performance of the delegated function.

17. Deputy Directors-General

(1) The President shall in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution appoint such Deputy Directors-General as are necessary for the performance of the functions of the Authority.

(2) The Deputy Directors-General shall hold office on the terms and conditions specified in the letters of appointment.

(3) The Deputy Directors-General shall act in the absence of the Director-General and perform any other functions determined by the Board.

18. Secretary

(1) The Authority shall have a Secretary appointed by the President in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution.

(2) The Secretary shall hold office on the terms and conditions specified in the letter of appointment.

(3) The Secretary shall

(a) facilitate the efficient operation of the Authority's formal decision-making and reporting processes,

(b) attend meetings of the Board,

(c) record and keep the certified minutes of all meetings of the Board,

(d) collect, organise and distribute to members of the Board relevant information and documents for the purpose of meetings of the Board,

(e) advise the Board on matters related to memoranda and presentations for meetings of the Board, and

(f) perform any other function determined by the Board or by the Director-General.

19. Appointment of other staff

(1) The President shall in accordance with article 195 of the Constitution appoint for the Authority other officers and staff that are necessary for the proper and effective performance of its functions.

(2) Other public officers may be transferred or seconded to the Authority or may otherwise give assistance to it.

(3) The Authority may engage the services of consultants and advisers as it considers necessary for the effective discharge of the functions of the Authority.

Financial Provisions

20. Funds of the Authority

(1) The funds of the Authority include

(a) fees, charges or any other moneys payable under this Act, or any other enactment,

(b) any moneys provided by Parliament,

(c) donations, grants and gifts,

(d) moneys derived from the investment of the Authority's funds, and

(e) any other moneys that are approved by the Minister responsible for Finance.

(2) The moneys received by or on behalf of the Authority shall be paid into a bank account of the Authority opened by the Board with the approval of the Controller and Accountant-General.

21. Expenses of the Authority

(1) The expenses of the Authority shall be paid from moneys provided for the funds of the Authority.

(2) Where after having defrayed the outstanding expenses, the Authority has an excess amount, the Board shall transfer that amount to the Consolidated Fund unless the Minister for Finance in consultation with the Minister approves the retention by the Authority of a part or the whole of that excess amount.

22. Accounts and audit

(1) The Board shall keep books of account and proper records in relation to them in the form approved by the Auditor-General.

(2) The Board shall submit the accounts of the Authority to the Auditor-General for audit within three months after the end of each financial year.

(3) The Auditor-General shall, not later than three months after the receipt of the accounts, audit the accounts and forward a copy of the audit report to the Minister.

(4) The Internal Audit Agency Act, 2003 (Act 658) shall apply to this Act.

(5) The financial year of the Authority shall be the same as the financial year of the Government.

23. Annual report and other reports

(1) The Board shall within one month after the receipt of the audit report, submit an annual report to the Minister covering the activities and the operations of the Authority for the year to which the report relates.

(2) The annual report shall include the report of the Auditor-General and shall be submitted in the form and contain the information set out in the Schedule to this Act.

(3) The Minister shall, within one month after the receipt of the annual report submit the report to Parliament with a statement that the Minister considers necessary.

(4) The Board shall also submit in writing to the Minister any other reports which the Minister may require.

24. Borrowing powers

Subject to the provisions on loans contained in article 181 of the Constitution and any other enactment, the Authority may obtain loans and other credit facilities on the guarantee of the Government from a bank or financial institution that the Minister for Finance determines.

Miscellaneous Provisions

25. Procedure for decision-making by the Authority

(1) In the exercise of its function under this Act and the Electronic Communications Act, 2008 (Act

775) the Board shall

(a) observe reasonable standards of procedural fairness,

(b) act timeously, and

(c) observe the rules of natural justice, when making decisions that affect a person.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Board shall

(a) publish a matter for decision in the Gazette as considered necessary or as required by the

Electronic Communications Act, 2008 (Act 775) prior to making a decision;

(b) grant a person who is or is likely to be affected by a decision of the Board, an opportunity;

(i) to make a submission to the Board,

(ii) to be heard by the Board, or

(iii) to consult with the Board in good faith, and

(c) have regard to evidence adduced and matters contained in a submission made or received in the course of any consultation.

(3) Where the Board makes a decision, it shall

(a) state in writing the reasons for the decision; and

(b) provide in accordance with its procedure; notification of the decision to the relevant persons.

(4) The Board may, on application or on its own motion, review, rescind or vary a decision made by it or hear a matter again before rendering a decision.

26. Register of interests

(1) The Director-General shall cause to be kept and maintained a Register in which shall be recorded details of

(a) any share or debenture owned by a member of the Board;

(b) other financial interests a member of the Board has in a corporate body;

(c) any public or charitable appointment or directorship held by a member; and

(d) any other matter required to be registered.

(2) The Register shall be publicly accessible, in both physical and electronic form.

(3) The Register shall be open to the public for physical inspection during normal working hours and subject to the payment of a fee determined by the Authority.

(4) A person may

(a) make a copy of the content of the Register, or

(b) take an extract from the Register, at the fee that the Authority may determine.

27. Code of conduct

(1) The Board shall establish within one year of the commencement of this Act, a code of conduct for members of the Board, staff and persons whose services the Authority engages.

(2) The Authority shall revise the code of conduct from time to time having regard to the changing regulatory objectives in the communications industry.

28. Application

This Act binds the Republic.

29. Regulations

The Minister may, on the advice of the Board by legislative instrument make Regulations to

(a) prescribe fees chargeable under this Act;

(b) provide for the forms for applications;

(c) prescribe requirements for authorisations and licences;

(d) prescribe conditions for interconnection of communication systems;

- (e) provide procedures for the implementation of a system of universal service provision including the quality of service standards;
- (f) provide procedures for the use of
 - (i) network facilities,
 - (ii) network services,
 - (iii) applications services,
 - (iv) content applications services,
- (g) provide for emergency or distress circumstances; and
