SCHEDULES

First Schedule

Recoverable Rent in Respect of Accommodation in Residential

Premises

Second Schedule

P.N.D.C.L. 138

RENT CONTROL ACT, 1986(1)

AN ACT to regulate rent and to provide for related matters.

Rent in Respect of Residential Premises

1. Rent in respect of residential premises

(1) The rent payable by a tenant in respect of single or two-roomed accommodation in any residential premises shall be as specified in the First Schedule.

(2) Where the residential accommodation in respect of which the rent is payable is smaller or larger in dimensions than those specified in the First Schedule, the recoverable rent shall be proportionate to the dimensions of the accommodation.

(3) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, amend the First Schedule.

(4) Despite a provision in any other enactment to the contrary and until the 6th day of March, 1987, a landlord shall not raise the rent prescribed by this Act in respect of a residential accommodation referred to in subsection (1).2(2)

2. Exemptions

Section 1 does not apply to a lease or tenancy

(a) held from the Government or any other State agency;

(b) of premises let for industrial, commercial or any other business purposes;

(c) of premises rented by diplomatic or consular missions, international organisations, foreign companies and firms which under section 1 of the Rent (Amendment) (No. 3) Decree, 1979

(A.F.R.C.D. 51) are required to pay the foreign exchange equivalent of their rents to the Bank of Ghana in the first instance;

(d) taken by an incorporated body other than a body the whole proprietary interest in which is held by the Government or any other State agency; and

(e) where the rent payable exceeds one hundred thousand cedis per month, or an amount determined by the Minister by an executive instrument.

3. Houses built by Tema Development Corporation or the State Housing Corporation

(1) With effect from the commencement of this Act and subject to subsection (2), a person who derives title to any premises from the Tema Development Corporation, the State Housing Corporation or any other similar housing organisation or agency sponsored by the Government, under a subsisting hire-purchase agreement howsoever called, and who in turn sublets or has sublet the premises shall not, despite an agreement to the contrary, charge the tenant or demand or receive from the tenant a monthly rent in respect of the premises which exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the instalment which that person pays per month to the State Housing Corporation, the Tema

Development Corporation or any other similar housing organisation or agency sponsored by the Government,

(b) the amount which is the equivalent of the property rate or any other imposts payable by that a person in respect of the premises, and

(c) twenty-five percent of the total of the amounts referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(2) Where the instalment which is paid by the person referred to in subsection (1) to any of the bodies referred to in the agreement, is different from the instalment which that person would have paid if a deposit had not been paid and that person had agreed to pay the purchase price of the premises over a period of twenty years from the date of commencement of the hire-purchase agreement, then the reference in subsection (1) (a) to the monthly instalment paid by that person shall nevertheless be deemed to be a reference to the instalment which that person would have paid if a deposit had not been paid and that person had agreed to pay the purchase price over a period of twenty years.

(3) A certificate issued by any of the bodies certifying the instalment payable under subsection (1) (a) or subsection (2) by a person referred to in subsection (1) is prima facie evidence of the instalment.

4. Landlords to register leases and tenancies

(1) The landlord of a residential accommodation referred to in section 1 shall register with the Rent and Housing Committee each lease or tenancy agreement in respect of the accommodation within fourteen days of entering into the lease or tenancy agreement.

(2) A landlord shall not demand or receive from the tenant of a residential accommodation the rent in respect of the accommodation without complying with subsection (1).

5. Rent cards

The landlord of a residential accommodation referred to in section 1 shall

(a) issue to each tenant of the accommodation a rent card specifying the following particulars:

(i) the name and address of the landlord,

(ii) the name and address of the tenant,

(iii) the amount of rent payable by the tenant,

(iv) any other particulars prescribed by the Minister, and

(b) furnish to the nearest Rent and Housing Committee a list of the names of the tenants and the actual rents paid by each of the tenants.

6. Recovery of possession and ejection

(1) Despite any other enactment to the contrary and until the 6th day of March, 1987, an application shall not be entertained for the ejection of a tenant or the recovery of possession from a tenant in respect of a residential accommodation referred to in section 1.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not prevent the making of an application to a Rent and Housing Committee established under this Act for the ejection of a tenant or the recovery of possession of the residential accommodation where the landlord establishes

(a) a genuine intention to recover possession of the accommodation for the personal occupation as a dwelling room or rooms for the landlord, a member of the landlord's family or any person in the landlord's full time employment; or

(b) that the accommodation is reasonably required by the landlord to be used by the landlord for business purposes.

(3) Where a landlord makes an application for the ejection of a tenant or the recovery of possession on any of the grounds specified in subsection (2), the Rent and Housing Committee may call for documentary evidence or verification from the landlord and may, if satisfied, make an appropriate order.

7. Complaints by landlords

A complaint or an action by a landlord against a tenant in respect of a residential accommodation referred to in section 1 shall not be heard by the Rent and Housing Committee unless it is satisfied that the landlord has fulfilled the obligations imposed on the landlord by section 5.

Rent and Housing Committees

8. Establishment of Rent and Housing Committees

(1) There shall be established by a District Assembly within its area of authority a Rent and Housing

Committee to perform in relation to that district the functions conferred upon it by this Act.3(3)

(2) A Rent and Housing Committee shall comprise of

(a) omitted,4(4)

(b) one representative of the local government authority,

(c) one Rent Officer,

(d) one representative of landlords in the city or town,

(e) one representative of tenants in the city or town, and

(f) two other persons of integrity and good social standing appointed by the District Assembly in the particular city or town.

(3) A Rent and Housing Committee shall have a chairman who shall be elected by the Committee from among its members.

(4) A member of a Rent and Housing Committee other than the Rent Officer shall hold office for a period of two years but is eligible for re-election.

(5) A Rent and Housing Committee shall be registered with the relevant department of the District

Assembly, and where there is a change in the membership, notice of the change shall be furnished to that department.

(6) Omitted.5(5)

9. Functions of Rent and Housing Committees

The functions of a Rent and Housing Committee in relation to the area of authority of a particular

District Assembly are

(a) to compile a register of the leases and tenancies of residential accommodation referred to in section 1 specifying the particulars as may from time to time be prescribed by the Minister;

(b) to compile a register of unoccupied rooms in residential premises in which some rooms are let or are normally let and a register of the residential premises which are unoccupied, specifying the particulars as may from time to time be prescribed by the Minister;

(c) to hear and determine, in respect of a residential accommodation referred to in section 1,;

(i) an allegation that a party to a lease or any other tenancy agreement in respect of the residential accommodation is in breach of the agreement or has acted in contravention of a law regulating the relationship between landlord and tenant with regard to a residential accommodation;

(ii) an application for the assessment of rent of the accommodation;

(iii) an application for the ejection of a tenant or the recovery of possession of the residential accommodation;

(iv)

any application for the review of an assessment of rent in respect of the residential accommodation;

(d) make appropriate the recommendations to the Minister on any issue relating to rent and housing; and

(e) perform any other functions relating to rent and housing as may be referred to it by the Minister.

10.

Matters to be taken into account in assessing recoverable rent

For the purposes of assessing the amount of recoverable rent for a residential accommodation in a residential premise to which this Act applies, a Rent and Housing Committee shall take into account,

(a) the rateable value of the premises for the assessment of rates on the premises,

(b) the value of the land on which the premises are situated,

(c) the amount of the annual rates payable in respect of the premises, and where the premises have been let in part, an apportionment of the rates attributable to that part,

- (d) the recoverable rent assessed for similar premises by the Rent and Housing Committee,
- (e) the estimated cost of repairs or maintenance of the premises,
- (f) the amount of the recoverable rent for like premises,
- (g) the current rate of interest charged by the Ghana Commercial Bank on overdrafts,
- (h) the obligations of the landlord, tenant and any other person interested in the premises under a lease or any other tenancy,
- (i) the justice and merits of each particular case.6(6)

11.

Powers of Rent and Housing Committees
